

Grade: 16/20 (Good)

Content (4/5):

- The essay clearly identifies the main problem of fast fashion and provides some supporting details.
- However, while it mentions dangers for the environment and people, it could go deeper with specific examples like pollution sources or worker exploitation practices.

Grammar and Mechanics (4/5):

- Sentences are mostly grammatically correct, with only minor errors like subject-verb agreement and tense consistency.
- Some articles ("a", "the") are missing at times, impacting clarity.

Clarity and Style (4/5):

- Ideas are conveyed clearly, but the tone could be more persuasive and engaging.
- There's room for vocabulary expansion with synonyms and descriptive language.

Conventions and Presentation (4/5):

- The essay adheres to basic formatting, but paragraphs could be improved for better flow and organization.
- Some typos are present ("peoples", "not all are sell").

Strengths:

- The essay tackles a relevant topic and raises essential concerns about fast fashion.
- It presents a clear argument and suggests alternatives.
- Sentences are generally grammatical and well-structured.

Areas for improvement:

- Provide more specific examples and evidence to support claims.
- Enhance vocabulary diversity and sentence structure for variety and clarity.
- Refine tone and incorporate persuasive techniques to engage the reader.
- Proofread for minor grammatical errors and typos.
- Use paragraph breaks effectively to organize ideas and improve flow.

Overall:

This essay demonstrates a good understanding of the topic and expresses it clearly. With some attention to supporting details, vocabulary, and presentation, the writing can become even more impactful and persuasive.

Tips:

- Research specific statistics or case studies to add depth to your arguments.
- Use transition words and phrases to connect ideas smoothly within paragraphs.
- Consider a strong opening statement to capture the reader's attention.
- Proofread carefully before submitting your work.

Keep up the good work!
